It was in winter. Mrs. Smith wanted to do a lot of shopping. She asked her husband to go shopping with her on Sunday because he was free on Sundays. In that way, her husband could pay for everything and carry her packs. They went to a lot of shops, and Mrs. Smith bought a lot of things. She often stopped and said, “Look, Antony! Isn’t that beautiful?” Mr. Smith then answered, “All right, dear. How much is it?” and took his money out to pay for it.

It was dark when they came out of the last shop, and Mr. Smith was tired and thinking about other things, like a nice drink by the side of a warm fire at home. Suddenly, his wife looked up at the sky and said, “Look at that beautiful moon, Antony!” Without stopping, Mr. Smith answered, “ All right, dear. How much is it?”
