II. Do you know the history of Valentine's Day? Why is it on February 14th of each year? There are many stories about Valentine's Day. Some people think that Valentine's Day began in ancient Rome. Long ago, because the ruler Claudius wanted all young men to join the army, he declared that it is illegal for young men to marry. If young men have their family, they would like to stay at home and become weak. In this way, there are no good men to fight for the country. A priest, Valentine, did not follow Claudius' rule, however. He let many young men and women marry in his church. Later, Claudius found out the fact so put him in prison. When in prison, Valentine became very good friends with a guard's daughter. They were soon in love with each other. The night before Valentine was to die, he wrote a letter to the girl. He signed it, "From your Valentine." So from the story, that was the first valentine.
