When speaking of Hakka dishes, what will you think? Hakka flat noodles (客家粄條)? Mochi(麻糬)? Or pounded tea(擂茶)? In Miaoli, you can have them all. With more than 55% of Hakka population, Miaoli is famous for its Hakka delicacies.

But that's not all. Miaoli is also famous for its tourist attractions. In Sanyi Wood Sculpture Museum(三義木雕博物館), the only public wood sculpture museum in Taiwan, you can enjoy giant and beautiful wood sculptures. You can even experience making one by yourself. If you are looking for somewhere special to go with your girlfriend or boyfriend, the Hakka Tung Blossom Festival(客家桐花祭) is just right for you. It's interesting to walk under the trees when the white flowers fall down like snow! For more fun, you can go to Dahu(大湖) to go strawberry picking. The weather in Miaoli is best for this sweet-and-sour red fruit, and you can always find friendly strawberry farms open to visitors during winter.
