Did you ever take a trip to New York? I did. In fact, I lived in the place for one year. It is a busy city with many tall buildings and all kinds of people from different countries. There are many famous places to visit, like Broadway, Central Park and Times Square. I usually went shopping on New York's Fifth Avenue when being around. You can buy the most fashionable things in the world on it. Besides, it's wonderful to look at the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor.

There is a movie about New York. Its name is The Day After Tomorrow. I like it very much, but I don't like the ending! If things are like what the end of the movie played, it will truly be a bad dream.

They walked from farm to farm with their backpacks. They asked around to find old people to let them tell old stories. Every time a story was told, the Grimm brothers tried to write it down with almost the same words. After five years of hard work, they collected 86 stories. Their first book of old stories came out that year. Then they wrote two more books. All through their life, the Grimms collected 210 stories.
