Lakers' God—Kobe Bryant

One of the biggest names in the NBA history, Kobe Bryant, has told the world 2015-2016 is going to be the last season of his NBA life. The legendary basketball superstar has set a lot of records. To name just a few, he has won the NBA championship five times, scored over 60 points in a game five times, had a top score of 81 points in a game, and so on. Besides, he also worked on a song with one of the greatest names in Asian pop music, Jay Chou. All the money the song made has been given to people in need.

Kobe's father, Joey Bryant, was a former NBA basketball player, and he named his youngest son after the famous Japanese beef from Kobe. Kobe Bryant began to play basketball when he was only three.

He went through many ups and downs in his twenty-year NBA life. In an interview, he said that he felt at peace with his decision. He also wrote a poem:

This season is all I have left to give.
My heart can take the pounding

My mind can handle the grind

But my body knows it's time to say goodbye.

And that's OK.

I'm ready to let you go.
