Summer is coming. Some students plan to have a trip abroad. Some choose to spend the whole summer studying. Last year, I decided to do something different. I joined a study tour in New Zealand.

We had English classes in the morning ,and the teachers there brought us to visit some interesting places in the afternoon. I saw a sheep-shaving show for the first time. But the best part of the trip was that I stayed with a local family. My host mother was a fire fighter. Her husband died several years ago. She has three children, Emily, John and May. She is a great mother, and her children usually do the housework with her. I don't do housework in Taiwan because I am usually busy studying. After school, I have to go to cram school. When I get home, it is often past 9 o'clock. But things are different here. Emily, John , and May don't have classes after 3:00 p.m. They help cook dinner and clean the house. I think it is good to do something for the family. Maybe I should do the same thing.
