Bai Ju-yi is a famous poet. He passed away over 1,100 years ago, but people are still reading his works today. Children in Taiwan read his poems in Chinese classes, and there are even a lot of foreigners reading and studying them around the world. Bai Ju-yi was a very productive poet. There are about 3,000 of Bai Ju-yi's poems now.

Bai Ju-yi liked talking about social problems. He also wrote about a lot of interesting things in his own life. In fact, he was working on poems almost all the time. For example, when he missed his family and friends, he wrote poems to them. When he ate something delicious, he wrote poems. He even wrote poems after he had a cup of tea in the afternoon. He had at least 65 poems about tea! Can you believe that?

Thanks to Bai Ju-yi, we can learn a lot about the life of the Tang people. There was no Facebook in the past, but if there were, we would probably see Bai Ju-yi sharing everything in his life on Facebook!
