Q: Why do the children in the town like the winter?
12. CD: (Phone rings...)
M: Hello, Sandy. It's 1 a.m. there. Why haven't you gone to bed?
W: You know me. I always work late.
M: That's not good for health.
W: OK, OK. Stop talking about me. Mom and Dad miss you a lot. Will you come back for Christmas?
M: Yes. I've gotten the plane ticket, and I will get home on December 23.
Q: Why did the woman make the phone call?
13. CD: W: There is a street market next to the park.
M: I know. It started today and will be there until next Sunday.
W: Have you already visited there?
M: Yes, I just came back from there. Look. I bought you this bag. It's light, beautiful, and hand-made.
Q: Has the man ever visited the street market?
14. CD: B: I'm so excited about the party. It's going to be fun!
G: What are you talking about? What party?
B: Don't you know that there will be a dance party at school tonight?

Q: How does the girl feel about the party?
15. CD: W: Look. There is a restaurant here.
M: It looks dark and small.
W: Look at the menu. It sells many different types of burgers.

M: Why not?
Q: What does the woman mean?
