Food is a big part of French culture. It is said that French people live to eat, and the rest of the world eats to live. That's why the most famous food guide in the world, the Michelin Guide, is from France. Michelin is a tire company which the Michelin brothers started in 1889. At that time, not many people owned a car in France. To sell more tires, the Michelin brothers thought of an idea. Because French people loved food so much, the brothers decided to write a book that showed all the good restaurants in different cities. And that's how the Michelin Guide was born. This way, people would drive more to try the food, and Michelin could sell more tires.
To decide if a restaurant is good or not, the Michelin Guide has a team of inspectors. They're always anonymous, so when they go to restaurants to taste the food, they won't be treated differently. For each dining experience, the inspectors will write a report on their experiences and decide whether the restaurants should get a Michelin star. If a restaurant is excellent, the guide may give it one to three stars, and it'll be added to the guide. However, getting even one star is not easy. That's why it's a great honor to be on the list. In 2022, thirty-eight restaurants got the Michelin honor in Taiwan. Would you like to try them?
