The Olympics are a big event in the world of sports. They take place every four years, and cities around the world want to host them. In fact, they are proud to do so. They work hard to get everything ready for the big event. Thousands of people and athletes come from around the world to be at the games.

The first Summer Olympics was in Athens, Greece, in 1896, and the first Winter Olympics were in Chamonix, France, in 1924. London hosted the Summer Olympics three times—in 1908, 1948, and 2012. Innsbruck, St. Moritz, and Lake Placid each hosted the Winter Olympics twice.

The athletes can’t wait to take part in the Olympics. To get ready for the games, they train hard in their sport for years. They don’t just train once or twice a week. They usually train for many hours every day. They do that because they want to win medals and also prize money from their countries.
