Ted and Lisa are in Yangmingshan. It's Lisa's first time to visit Menghuan Pond.

Ted: Here we are. Menghuan Pond. Look at the pond and the trees around it.

Lisa: Hmm, it's beautiful, but the pond is very small.

Ted: Yes. It's only about 0.3~0.5 hectares. However, it's an important pond in Taiwan. It's very famous.

Lisa: Why?

Ted: There's Taiwan quillwort in the pond.

Lisa: What's so special about Taiwan quillwort? Does it grow in other ponds in Taiwan?

Ted: The answer is no. It only grows here.

Lisa: Wow! But where's Taiwan quillwort? I don't see any.

Ted: It's over there. Do you see it now? It's green.

Lisa: Yes, and it's small.

Ted: Its leaves are thin. They're about 10~20 cm long. This plant grows in the soil under the water. Sometimes you can see it on the water, but sometimes you can't.

Lisa: You mean sometimes all of the plant is under the water?

Ted: That's right.

Lisa: Does it need a lot of water?

Ted: Yes, it does. In dry seasons, it doesn't grow well.

Lisa: I see.

Ted: Let's go visit Milk Lake. It's around here.
